

Mrs George G. Hasmuth
41 Oriole Road
Toronto —
Ontario.

44.1

Englehart -
Aug 31

Mother Darling, -

This is my

last letter from this County before - You
must come up here
sometime - It is just just different from all

part of the world & this town is full of the nicest people. - I have enjoyed being here
& Mother & Nell has enjoyed it too - all
the ladies have called
we have had such
nice times they are
all so good & you
would be surprised
how aristocratic

We were terribly thrilled about the Prince wasn't that a nice little incident I can hear you tell about it just like Grandpa did about Grandpa & his Prince. We leave here tomorrow morning for Harley Bay will be home Wed Morn will come straight open sailing.

We are both so well all ready for our years work.

Much love & kisses

Dorothy.

Mrs Hammel.

Dear Mrs. Harmer.

I was very much pleased that
you wanted my Portrait but would not presume to
expect you to give it
a place in your room
which you have so
harmoniously filled.

But since you said
you were going to put it in your roquerie gallery

I got the only gray frame Ashley and Crippen had and if they
does not suit where you want to put it. They said you could
exchange it for anything else they have. I have a green frame like
the maner which could be hung on the wall if
that suited your room.
better.

Am sending it with
much love for my dear
Mrs. Howell. Eta Davis

The Margaret Eaton School Digital Collection is a not-for-profit resource created in 2014-2015 to assist scholars, researchers, educators, and students to discover the Margaret Eaton School archives housed in the Peter Turkstra Library at Redeemer University College. Copyright of the digital images is the property of Redeemer University College, Ancaster, Canada and the images may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email digital images for individual non-commercial use. To learn more about this project or to search the digital collection, go to <http://libguides.redeemer.ca/mes>.